The steamer Anjer Head sailed for Hongkong yesterday morning. She took away 58 Chinese from this port.

Letter mail per stmr. City of Sydney closes at 9:30 this morning at the Post Office. Registered letters and newspapers at 8:30 o'clock.

No less than 41 cabin passengers were booked here for the City of Sydney, but on her arrival it appears that she has absolutely no room. A serious disappointment.

The ortesian well of Princess Keelikoleni, at Palama, struck flowing water at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning. The well is down about 400 feet, and the flow of water is large and strong.

A Chinese prisoner, but who has been lost to sight for several months past, was found in Nuuanu Avenue on Saturday evening, disguised, with all his wardrobe upon him and $140 in gold coin in his pockets, ready to embark on the Anjer Head about to sail for the Flowery Land. His departure is now indefinitely postponed.

The performance on Saturday evening last at the Music Hall, by the Acme Minstrels, for the benefit of the crew of the "Norval," called forth a fair house. The actors, several of whom were new to the Honolulu stage, acquitted themselves well and elicited hearty applause. The singing was very good, and was more than once encored, and the dancing and the "specialties" delighted and amused the younger portion of the audience particularly. "Wilde Oscar," the esthetic, by Higgins, was very mirth-provoking.
